MONG The FRATERNITIES.

MASONIC

OBAN - Religious services at M. and E. S. Home, Dawson, No. 16, M. M.; Pentalpha, No. 28, social, address, etc. acstay - National, No. 12, M. M.; Pentalpha, No. 28, social, address, etc. acstay - National, No. 12, M. M.; La Fayette, No. 19, special, M. M.; Arminius, No. 25, business; Myrou M. Parker, No. 27, dedication of lodgeroom; King David, No. 28, address by Gov. A. M. Dockery, GRAND LODGE special, S. p.m., Masonic Hall, Sth and F. streets northeast, for d dication. Centendial, No. 14, E. A.; Osiris, No. 26, M. M.; East Gate, No. 34, King lecture on arcticitie.

Prince Naval. No. 4, M. M.: Hiram, No. 10, social; La Favette, No. 19, M. M.; Geo, C. Walting, No. 22, spe-cial, M. M. quees nights. Friday-Lebanon, No. 7, E. A.

ROYAL ARCH CHAPTERS Fuesday - La Fayette, No. 5, R. A. Wednesday - Colombia, No. 1, P. M. M. E. M. Friday-School of Instruction.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR COMMANDERIES. ROYAL AND SELE T MASTERS

Monday-Washington Council, No. 1, de

ANCIENT AND ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE. Tuesday Mithras Lodge of Perfection, 4th and 5th degrees.

Wednesday - Almas Temple of the Mystic Shrine, ecremonial. EASTERN STAR CHAPTERS.

enday - Ruth, No. 1, esslay - Mixonb. No. 8, "St. Patrick's alght": Fidelity, No. 19, grand visitg-Tion.
Wednesday Areme, No. 10.
Thursday Esther, No. 5, social features,
Friday Martha, No. 1; Ascension, No. 20.

Lodge of the District of Columbia has een called for Tuesday evening, at o'clock, in the hall of Myron M. Parker Lodge, No. 27, 8th street near Temple, for the exemplification of the degrees under the guidance of Grand Lecturer Thomas H. Young and the Grand Lodge committee on work and

The bodies of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite will begin the work of the spring class Tuesday evening, when Mithras Lodge of Perfection will confer the fourth and fifth degrees, with John H. von Herrmann, 32d de-gree, K. C. C. H., in charge of the fifth. March 23 the ninth and tenth degrees will be conferred, the latter with an entirely new set of costumes and new Thursday, with John C. Wineman, 32d degree, K. C. C. H., chairman: Dr. Frank E. Gibson, 32d degree, K. C. C. H.; George R. Davis, 32d degree, K. C. C. H.; Horace P. McIntosh, 32d degree, K. C. C. H.; Charles C. F. Toepper, 32d degree, K. C. C. H., and Burgess W. Marshall, 32d degree, as members. Members of the rite who are ill, or who know of sick members, it is announced, will insure their receiving proper attention by reporting to the secretary or any member of this committee.

tenth floor of the New Willard. The claborate proclamation announces it as the "feast in honor of Mariytoo! Qebteeyah," and Recorder Harrison Dingman says "Mariytoo! Qebteeyah," according to the lore of the ancient sheiks, is the "Spring, the First Daughter of the New Year." There are to be all sorts of oriental mysteries, processions, alkers and commemorations characteristic of shrine ceremonials of the ninth degree, it is stated, including a caravan of luckless tribesmen who long for light on the mysterious pilgrimages to Mecca. Red fezzes and cards emblazoned with the national colors are to be specially honored on the occasion, and emphasis is laid on the announcement that the "flight of the would-be faithful" will begin on the Mould-be faithful" will begin on the Macdonald during the first, and Scribe William S. Macdonald during the last-named. would-be faithful" will begin the nick of 8:39 p.m. Following the ceremonies, the illustrations in the proclamation, many and profuse, if not grotesque, indicate the customary feast characteristic of "the ancient and be open to the public. In addition to the glee club and orchestra, the band will contribute to the evening's enter-tainment. Frequent rehearsals are being held, under Charles A. Stevens, director of the glee club, who has the affair in charge, assisted by Samuel F. Shreve, president of the band, and Jacques Heidenheimer, leader of the or-chestra. The Kallipolis ministrel end affair in charge, assisted by Samuel F. Clation of Worshipful Masters and the Shreve, president of the band, and Jacques Heidenheimer, leader of the orchestra. The Kallipolis minstrel end men promise a brand-new line of jokes and specialties and the musical score of the men promise and specialties and the musical score of the control of the two last-named organizations to participate in a joint session at the and specialties and the musical score of the control of the same of the organization of Knights made, namely, March 23, to Friend-the two last-named organizations to participate in a joint session at the participate in a joint session at the musical score of the organization of Knights made, namely, March 23, to Friend-the two last-named organizations to participate in a joint session at the musical score of the organization of the same of the organization of the participate in a joint session at the participate in a joint session at the participate in a joint session at the last organization of the participate in a joint session at the participate in a joint session at the participate in a joint session at the last organization of the participate in a joint session at the participate i

Parker Lodge, No. 27, 8th street near F northwest, for the purpose of dedicating the hall to Masonic purposes. The Grand Lodge held its first stated communication of the year last evening at 7 o'clock in Masonic nounces the E. A. degree in Lebanon Lodge, No. 7, with Senior Warden Charles E. Alexander presiding, Friday or the Host Frank H. Pierce presiding during the first, and Scribe William S. Macdonald during the last-named. High Priest James A. West announces that all Royal Arch Masons are cor-dially welcome, and especially so-journing companions from sister juris-dictions.

Osiris Lodge, No. 28, is to have the M. M. degree Wednesday evening, in celebration of its 564th stated communication, when Senior Warden Lucien Yung will head the official line and five interested spectators will be present. Following the lodge work refreshments will be served by members of Naomi Chapter, No. 3, Order of the Eastern Star, which will be an innovation in Osiris Lodge functions.

Kallipolis Grotto, No. 15, is planning a minstrel show and dance for April 6. It will be held at Odd Fellows' Hall and be open to the public. In addition to the glee club and orchestra, the band will contribute to the evening's entertainment. Frequent rehearsals are being held, under Charles A. Stevens, director of the glee club, who has the affair in charge, assisted by Samuel F. Shreve, president of the band, and Jacques Heidenheimer, leader of the orchestra. The Kallipolis minstrel end and specialties and the musical score will be of high order.

Monarch E. W. Libbey announces a business meeting at Chamber of Commerce Hall. March 22; a smoker and entertainment at the New Willard Hotel, April 24, and a ceremonial at the New Willard Hotel, April 24, and a ceremonial at the New Willard Hotel, April 24, and a ceremonial at the New Willard Hotel, April 24, and a ceremonial at the New Willard Hotel, April 24, and a ceremonial at the New Willard Hotel, April 24, and a ceremonial at the New Willard Hotel, April 24, and a ceremonial at the New Willard Hotel, April 24, and a ceremonial at the New Willard Hotel, April 24, and a ceremonial at the New Willard Hotel, April 24, and a ceremonial at the New Willard Hotel, April 24, and a ceremonial at the New Willard Hotel, April 24, and a ceremonial at the Hotel Gordon. It is purposed to give later this year another Royal Arch dinner, as was done last year. The officers of the association are: James A. West of Columbia, No. 1, president: William T. Hackett of Mount Pleasant, No. 13, vice president: John H. von Herrmann of Eureka, No. 4, secretary-treasurer; Samuel T. Hind of Anacostia, No. 12, and Harry K. Pimper of Potomac, No. 8, members of the executive committee.

St. John's Lodge. No. 11. is looking forward so its "past masters' evening." March 28, when the M. M. degree will be presented by those who have presided over the destinies of the lodge in both the pleurisy at his home, 1342 U street formation. In 1914 we initiated 2,500 candidates. This year I estimate the number will be no less than 7,500, and I candidly think it will be nearer 9,900."

Ma-Ha-Di Grotto of Elkhart, Ind., one

Dawson Lodge, No. 16, will have the E. A. degree March (22, with Senior Warden Perry P. Patrick in charge.

Masonic Temple. 9th and F streets northwest, Wednesday evening.

East Gate Lodge, No. 34, will devote part of its communication Wednesday evening to the King lecture on the part of its communication Wednesday evening to the King lecture on the part of its communication wednesday evening to the King lecture on the part of its communication wednesday evening to the King lecture on the part of its communication wednesday evening to the King lecture on the part of its communication wednesday evening to the King lecture on the part of its communication wednesday evening to the King lecture on the part of its communication wednesday evening to the King lecture on the part of its communication wednesday evening to the King lecture on the part of its communication wednesday evening to the King lecture on the part of its communication wednesday evening to the King lecture on the part of its communication wednesday evening to the King lecture on the part of its communication wednesday evening to the King lecture on the part of its communication wednesday evening to the King lecture on the part of its communication wednesday evening to the King lecture on the part of its communication wednesday evening to the King lecture on the part of its communication wednesday evening works as the post of man. The word by Worthy Grand Patron Brother Poynton: song by Mr. Roberts.

Past Matron Carrie Smith is at the frest official visit for the benefit of the Eebekah Lodge. No. 7, will receive an official visit from the official visit from th circular for the occasion.

The Ionic Club of Master Masons employed in the Treasury Department will have a social session at the New Ebbitt next Saturday evening. Benjamin T. Steele is chairman of the committee of arrangements.

The Ashiar Club of Master Masons of The Ashiar Club of Master Masons of the first objects that strike the eye is an ornate Royal Arch approach. The Ashlar Club of Master Masons of the State, War and Navy Departments will have its annual banquet at the New Ebbitt Thursday evening. Music will be furnished by a section of the Marine Band, under the direction of W. B. Mundell, and by a quartet of male voices, under the direction of W. N. Eaton. A number of distinguished speakers are expected, including Vice President Marshall and Secretaries Bryan, Garrison, Daniel and others. It will be the first function of the kind to be given by the club, and B. J. Wrightsman has composed a march, dedicated to the club, which will be played as a special feature. H. G. McLean of the War Department is chairman of the committee of arrangements.

National Lodge, No. 12, is making a last stated conclave of the current Templar year, will have the orders of the Temple and Malta Wednesday evening.

George C. Whiting Lodge, No. 22. will have the M. M. degree Thursday evening, which the master has designated as "press night," in honor of certain last will be supported by the content of the faults of the other leiblow, but reveal to may own.

"Guide me so that each day when I look across the dinner table at my wife, who has been a blessing to me, I will have nothing to conceal.

"Keep me young enough to laugh with my children and to lose myself in their play."

eremony short and the epitaph simple. Here lies a man.'
"Homer H. McKee, in Brotherhood."

warden Perry P. Patrick in charge.

Capitol Royal Arch Chapter, No. 11, will have the R. A. degree its concaron March 26, which will held in the newly finished Masonic Temple at 8th and F streets northeast.

Gov. A. M. Dockery, third assistant postmaster of Masons of the state of Misson, will deliver an address before King David Lodge, No. 28, Tuesday evening. Gov. Dockery has been a welcome guest, it is said, at Masonic in the patrings in the District during recent years, and his gift of oratory, especially along Masonic lines, it is believed, will insure a big turnout to hear him.

De Molay Mounted Commandery, No. 4, Knights Templar, will devote its conclave of March 23 to regular business, and possibly some of the orders may be presented.

La Fayette Royal Arch Chapter, No. 11.

The Association of Worshipful Masters of 1913 held a meeting in Masonic in description of Worshipful Masters of 1913 held a meeting in Masonic of the saturday in Masonic officers and arranged for the annual banquet, which will take place at the Hotel Hudson Monday night, March 29.

The officers (re-elected) are: President, James H. Windsor; secretary-treasurer, James H. Windsor; secretary-treasurer, Security committee, Charles E. Baldwin and elected with the past grand matron and patrons, with numerous past and present matrons and patrons, with numerous as welcome guest, it is said, at Masonic in the District during recent years, and his gift of oratory, especially along Masonic lines, it is believed, will insure a big turnout to the large the Masonic of the Schureman, L. Charles, E. S. Wolfe, J. A. Hartsock, G. S. Barnhart, M. A. Beck'zem, P. Schureman, P. F. Pollard, G. M'Seibert, H. L. Parkinson, A. H. Pike, O. Hamming and patrons, and patrons, with the official visit of the grand matron and grand patron the past grand matron and grand patron in the bloth of the large the Mount Pleasant Lodge Hudla and one of the largest well as the Mount Pleasant Lodge Hudla and one of the largest well win its history. There were present betwelli conclave of March 23 to regular pusiness, and possibly some of the orders may be presented.

La Fayette Royal Arch Chapter. No. 5, will have the R. A. degree at its convocation Tuesday evening.

Past Monarch Ed. S. Schmidt of Kallipolis Grotto of the Veiled Prophets, acting as deputy grand monarch, by special appointment, will institute Koran Grotto in Philadelphia, Pa., next Thursday evening. Quite a number of local prophets are arranging to act as trays and pitchers, and Past I rays and pitchers, an

and Eastern Star Home next Sunday afternoon.

The twentieth anniversary of Takoma Lodge, No. 29, will be celebrated May 8. The following committee has been appointed to arrange for the celebration: C. H. Spencer, H. A. Stacy, H. D. Lawson and Past Masters William E. Dyre and Howard S. Fisk.

In the absence of Worshipful Master Ernest Warren Porter, who is confined to his home with the grip, the M. M. degree was presented with Senior Warden Malcolm McCrone heading the official line at the communication Tuesday night. Past Master William E. Dyre, Worshipful Master Harry E. Dyre, Worshipful Master Harry E. Sengstack of Columbia Lodge, No. 3, and Past Master Enos S. Harnden of Takoma Lodge, No. 29, assisted. Refreshments followed. Among those present were High Priest Walter F. Smith and Past High Priest William L. White of Brightwood Royal Arch Chapter, No. 9; Worshipful Masters H. E. Sengstack of Columbia Lodge, No. 3; Albert B. Snavely of Naval Lodge, No. 4, and Z. T. Jenkins of M. M. Parker Lodge, No. 27; Past Masters W. H. Cleaver of Beallsville, Pa., Lodge, No. 247; George L. Tarbell, Thomas M. F. Dowling, William E. Dyre, Joseph B. Simpson, Howard S. Fisk and Enos S. Marnden of Takoma Lodge, No. 29. The M. M. degree will be presented at the delity Chapter, No. 19, Tuesday evenof which will doubtless make special preparations for the event.

Worthy Matron Mayme A. Kuechle of Mizpah Chapter, No. 8, announces Tuesday evening in that chapter as "St. Patrick's Night," when all who come are requested to wear "something green." Entertainment in part is promised by the famous minstrel team of George C. Whiting Lodge, No. 22, F. A. A. M., through the courtesy of Messrs. Woerner and Gross.

Worthy Matron Nellie West an-nounces that the Thursday meeting of Esther Chapter, No. 5, will be devoted to social features, and that there will sided over the destinies of the lodge in both degree work.

In old we have several more which we have several more which we trust will soon materialize. Fifty have signed the petition for a grotto in New, 1342 U street, the trust will soon materialize. Fifty have signed the petition for a grotto in New, 1342 U street, the trust will soon materialize. Fifty have signed the petition for a grotto in New, 1342 U street, the trust will be neared and the street of t

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Sydney Wright, 2720 13th street northwest, Monday, April 5, at 1 o'clock.

Monday—Ruth. No. 2, degree; Naomi, No. 1, business.
Tuesday—Fidelity, No. 7, visitation of assembly officers, accompanied by the grand master and officers of the Grand Lodge.
Friday—Doreas, No. 4, degree.

ways feady to co-operate in advancing the interests of that body. The officers of Fidelity Lodge, it is said, will be tree, No. 10, will celebrate St. Pattrick's day with a special program of entertainment. Among those who will participate are: Rev. Earle Wilfley, who will give a reading: Miss Maud Fellheimer, matron, and Frank J. Rowell, patron of Columbia Chapter, No. 15, with a dialogue. Mrs. Grinnell and Mrs. Pierce will also offer a dalogue and several other numbers will be presented.

Mrs. Pierce will also offer a dalogue and several other numbers will be presented.

Mrs. Pierce will also offer a dalogue and several other numbers will be presented.

Mrs. Pierce will also offer a dalogue and several other numbers will be presented.

Mrs. Pierce will also offer a dalogue and several other numbers will be presented.

Mrs. Pierce will also offer a dalogue and several other numbers will be presented.

Mrs. Pierce will also offer a dalogue and several other numbers will be presented.

Mrs. Pierce will also offer a dalogue and several other numbers will be presented.

Mrs. Pierce will also offer a dalogue and several other numbers will be presented.

Mrs. Pierce will also offer a dalogue and several other numbers will be presented.

Mrs. Pierce will also offer a dalogue and several other numbers will be presented.

Mrs. Pierce will also offer a dalogue and several other numbers will be presented.

Mrs. Pierce will also offer a dalogue and several other numbers will be presented.

Mrs. Pierce will also offer a dalogue and several other numbers will be presented.

Mrs. Pierce will also offer a dalogue and several other numbers will be presented in growing from 15th and G streets northwest. This, being the first visitation of Pressident Gright and Gright a Chapter, respectively, extend a geheral new customs which, it is said, will be adhered to in years and its intention of W. N. Eaton.

A mumber of distinguished speakers are a communication of the Bunker Hill Mounment, and Servertares Bryan, Garrison, Daniel and Others. It will be the first function of the Bunker Hill Mounment, and Servertares Bryan, Garrison, Daniel and others. It will be the first function of the Bunker Hill Mounment, and Servertares Bryan, Garrison, Daniel and others. It will be the first function of the Bunker Hill Mounment, and Servertares Bryan, Garrison, Daniel and others. It will be the first function of the Bunker Hill Mounment, and Servertares Bryan, Garrison, Daniel and Servertares Bryan, Garrison, Daniel and others. It will be the first function of the Bunker Hill Mounment, and Servertares Bryan, Garrison, Daniel and Servertares Bryan, Garrison, Daniel and others. It will be the first function of the Bunker Hill Mounment, and the communication of the Communication of the Servertary and the servertary of the serve Grand Patriarch E. W. Bradford, after visiting unofficially all the encampments, states "that this term indicates that the encampments will close their year in July with the largest gain of members that in Masonic and elected che annual acc at the Mount Pleasant Lodge March 29 in its history. There were present president, retreasurer, executive Idwin and amount adwin and patrons, with numerous Idwin and patrons and patrons, with numerous past and present matrons and patrons, executive Idwin and seembers of Ballard, F. S. Shreve, las, F. M. Letthday anniversary by conferring the chapter celebrated its fourth the terman, L. Hartsock, las, F. M. Letthday anniversary by conferring the chapter celebrated with a complete punch set, consisting of two bowls and twelve dozen glasses by the associate punch. Walther, walth and the consisting of two bowls and twelve dozen glasses by the associate matron. Tillie C. Chauncey, and Control of the regular session Tuesday evening. Chlefe Patriarch Thomas H. Green Well-Comed Canton Washington, No. 1, under Columbia Chapter. Thomas H. Green Well-Comed Canton Washington, No. 1, under Compand of Capt. Frederick A. Roys, after which the meeting was turned over the social meeting. Grand High Priest P. H. Leary, who had prepared a program. In an address Grand Patriarch E. W. Bradford spoke of the necessity of building a new temple in this city for the use of the order. Past Grand Master and Past Grand Representative John H. Wood indorsed the sentiment. It is believed by many plans the chapter celebrated its fourth will be soon formulated for disposing of the Grand Lodge officers, to organize a lodge at Mount Pleasant. This regular session Tuesday evening. Chlefter Which the meeting was turned over the capt which the meeting was turned over the capt which the meeting was turned over the capt which the meeting was turned over the chapter chapter of the chapter chapter of the ch

the worthy grand patron, will pay Friendship Chapter its official visit.

St. John's Lodge Chapter, No. 18, will hold a euchre at the home of Mrs. Kattle Morrison, 2515 14th street northwest, tomorrow evening. All members and friends are invited.

ODD FELICAS

Metropolis Lodge, No. 16, held use the min hall of the temple.

Webster Lodge, No. 7, held its first work.

Metropolis Lodge, No. 16, held use the min hall of the temple.

Webster Lodge, No. 7, held its first work.

Metropolis Lodge, No. 16, held use the lodge official to the min hall of the temple.

Webster Lodge, No. 7, held its first work.

Metropolis Lodge, No. 16, held use the lodge official to the min hall of the temple.

Webster Lodge, No. 7, held its first work.

Metropolis Lodge, No. 16, held use the lodge official to the min hall of the temple.

Webster Lodge, No. 7, held its first work.

Metropolis Lodge, No. 16, held use the lodge official to the min hall of the temple.

Webster Lodge, No. 7, held its first work.

Metropolis Lodge, No. 16, held use the lodge official to the min hall of the temple.

Webster Lodge, No. 7, held its first work.

Metropolis Lodge, No. 16, held use the lodge official to the min hall of the temple.

Webster Lodge, No. 16, held use the lodge official to the min hall of the temple.

Webster Lodge, No. 17, held its first work were grand of the main hall of the temple.

Webster Lodge, No. 18, was promounced a success in every way.

It was promounced a success in every way.

Mount Pleasant Lodge, No. 29, will meet Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock at 14th and Kenyon streets northwest. The initiatory degree will be conferred on a large class of candidates. A welcome is extended to visiting brethren. March 18 closes the third month for the "baby lodge," and Noble Grand Swingle reports flourishing conditions, the membership nearing the century mark.

Holfdes.

Monday—Equal, No. 17; Amaranth, No. 28; Century, No. 30, page rank.

Tuesday—Webster, No. 7, page rank; Excelsior, No. 11; Capital, No. 24; Myrtle, No. 25.

Wednesday—Mt. Vernon, No. 5.

Thursday—Franklin, No. 2.

Friday—Syracusians, No. 10.

Monday—Monthly meeting Past Chiefs' Association. Wednesday—Friendship Temple, No. 9. Friday—Rathbone Temple, No. 8, enter-talnment and euchre.

DAMON DRAMATIC CLUB.

Eastern Lodge No. 7, at its last meeting, conferred the first degree on a class of candidates, several being from other lodges. A large delegation from Langdon Lodge was present with several candidates from that lodge. The degree director was Part Grand W. E. Lawson.

The first visitation of the Grand Lodge officers will be to the home lodge of Grand Vice Chancellor John B. Dickman, and the last to the home lodge of Grand and the last to the long the last to the long the last to the la tions. The grand patron, Arthur M. Poynton, congratulated the chapter on its birthday and added words of praisfor the proficiency of the officers. Past Grand Patron Wallace Streater, the father of the chapter, also made an address.

Refreshments were served.
The Ploral Circle of the chapter will meet with Mrs. Elizabeth K. Gould, afternoon at 1:30.

Friendship Chapter, No. 17, met in Masonic Temple, Tenleytown, Tuesday evening. Worthy Patron J. W. Lynn, who has been quite ill for some time, was in his station in the chapter was enterious in business the chapter was enterious with a number of songs and recitations, including a recitation in the chapter was enterious with a number of songs and recitations, including a recitation, and the longe of grand officers will be to the home lodge of Grand Vice Chancellor John B. Dickman, and the last to the home lodge of Grand Vice Chancellor John B. Dickman, and the last to the home lodge of Grand Vice Chancellor John B. Dickman, and the last to the home lodge of The Grand Vice Chancellor John B. Dickman, and the last to the home lodge of The John B. Dickman, and the last to the home lodge of The John B. Dickman, and the last to the home lodge of The John B. Dickman, and the last to the home lodge of The John B. Dickman, and the last to the home lodge of The John B. Dickman, and the last to the home lodge of The John B. Dickman, and the last to the home lodge of The John B. Dickman, and the last to the home lodge of The John B. Dickman, and the last to the home lodge of The John B. Dickman, and the last to the home lodge of The John B. Dickman, and the last to the home lodge of The John B. Dickman, and the last to the home lodge of The John B. Dickman, and the last to the home lodge of The John B. Dickman, and the last to the home lodge of The John B. Dickman, and the last to the home lodge of The John B. Dickman, and the last to the home lodge of The John B. Dickman, and the last to the home lodge of The John B. Dickman, and the lodge, No. 11, mond and the last to the la cers.

Memorial services will be held June

J. T. Coldwell Company, No. 7, Uniform Rank, at its last meeting, received a number of applications for membership and made plans for the spring drilling.

of prospective members Tuesday night at 3118 14th street and several names a were secured. Another meeting was held last night at the same place, and an additional number was enrolled, Mr. Vandervort looks forward to the institution of the lodge at an early date.

Chancellor Commander Frank D. Wallace announces plans for a big meeting of the fraternity at the oldest Pythian lodge in the world, Franklin, No. 2, Thursday night. Grand Chancellor William McK. Woodhouse of Virginia will make a fraternal visit to the mother domain and will be at Franklin Lodge. While in the city he will be the guest of Mr. Wallace. A feature of Thursday night's meeting will be the reception of the Rey. E. K. Hardin, pastor of Mount Vernon Place Methodist Enjegonal Church Scott. auswill cellor William McK. Woodhouse of Virginia will make a fraternal visit to the mother domain and will be at Franklin Lodge. While in the city he will be the guest of Mr. Wallace. A feature of Thursday night's meeting will be the guest of Mr. Wallace. A feature of Thursday night's meeting will be the reception of the Rev. E. K. Hardin, pastor of Mount Vernon Place Methodist Episcopal Church South, as a member of the lodge by transfer are members of the lodge by transfer Wallace extends an invitation to the members of all local lodges and members of other jurisdictions sojourning in the city to attend.

Grand Chancellor William McK. Woodhouse of Virginia will make a fraternal visit to purchase uniforms.

Constellation Council, No. 39, at its last meeting, received an unexpected visit in a body from about thry members of Francis Scott Key Council. A challenge was extended to the dickpin team, and the captains of both teams are making arrangements of action included the initiation of candidates and the receiving of three applications.

It is said this council will show a gain of about 50 per cent in member of all local lodges and members of other jurisdictions sojourning in the city to attend.

Grand Chancellor William McK. Woodhouse of Virginia will make a fraternal visit to last meeting, received an unexpected visit in a body from about thirty members of Francis Scott Key Council. A challenge was extended to the dickpin team, and the captains of both teams are making arrangements of action included the initiation of candidates and the receiving of three applications.

It is said this council will show a gain of about 50 per cent in member of the council will show a gain of about 50 per cent in member arrangement are under way to organize a base ball team; also that "hab."

Grand Chancellor William A. Kinimel made a fraternal visit to Hermione Lodge, No. 12, in Georgetown Tuesday night, and reports much enthusiasm over the class initiation the lodge is planning to hold in May. A number of applications were secured and he reports the lodge to be encouraged over the prospects for work in the near future as well as throughout the year.

Whiting states that his company expects to carry off a prize at Nashville, as it did at Milwaukee and Terre Haute. The company is officered as follows: Captain, George H. Whiting: first lieutenant. George G. Greacy: second lieutenant. W. M. Williams: first sergeant, A. A. Adams: second sergeant. Charles Roberts. The Nashville Club has been organized, and stated sums will be put away at short intervals to make up a fund for the trip.

Rathbone Temple, No. 8, Pythian Sisters, will have an entertainment and euchre Friday night at the Pythian Temple. At its last meeting a number of candidates were initiated and several applications received. Mrs. Della H. Nichols, Mrs. Mary E. Mitchell and Mrs. Roberta Prescott were elected representatives to the Grand Temple of Virginia and the District of Columbia, with Mrs. Emma Motyka, Mrs. Bertha Williams and Mrs. Florence David as alternates. Most Excellent Chief Olivia Atherton has announced the appointment of Mrs. Emma D. Bynum as press representative for Rathbone Temple.

Miss Mary R. Steiner will entertain the Past Chiefs' Association at the monthly meeting of the organization tomorrow night. The president, Mrs. Mary E. Mitchell, desires a large attendance of attended meeting Monday night. The chancellor commander, Charles J. Packham, announced that a candidate for the page rank was due for tomorrow night, and that refreshments would be served. Edward Newcomb, master of exchequer, has promised the Exceisior Lodge, No. 4, conferred the knight rank on a class at its regular convention Tuesday night. Many prominent members of the order were present, several of whom assisted in the rank work. Otto C. Petersen of Benecia Lodge, California, who has just completed a four-year trip around the world, gave an interesting talk on his travels. Other visitors included H. L. Morris of Ivanhoe Lodge, Richmond, Va.: Supreme Representative Albert Kahlert, Past Grand Chancellor G. Frank Day, Past Chancellors Samuel Jacobsen and Israel Sommers and Chancellor Commander Motyka of Capital Lodge.

that the euchre party seemed an assurant state Councilor Charles S. Jones and his staff.

Past Councilor Edgar C. Blackman was reported sick, and Past Councilor Frederick R. Sullivan as much improved. H. Blackenheimer was present after a long illness. The books, finances and records of the council were examined by the State Council secretary and State Council treasurer and reported in expression of the council were commended. State Council of Charles S. Jones issued a proclamation calling for the appointment of one member of each subordinate council to confer with him upon the organization of a military company in this jurisdiction. Addresses were made by Past Councilors John W. Milstead, Grover E. Payne, the councilors will be about a year in the Virginia camps, month of Capitol Council, No. 25, and Constellation Council, No. 25, and Constellation Council, No. 39; Councilor Harry of Capitol Council Conductor G. T. Barksed ale, State Council Conductor G. T.

Star Spangled Benner Council, No. 8, met Thursday evening at 623 Louisiana avenue northwest, with Councilor Everett King, presiding. Edward Robey, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, was reported improved. About 300 members attended the class initiation held by the council. The degree of virtue was presented by Reno Council, No. 46, with Councilor J. D. Simpson, presented the degree of liberty. The degree of patriotism was exemplified by Mount Vernon Council, No. 16, with Councilor J. D. Simpson, presented the degree of liberty. The degree of patriotism was exemplified by Mount Vernon Council, No. 10, with Councilor Guy M. Yost as degree master.

Valley Forge Council, No. 51, Wednesday night conferred the initiatory degree on three candidates; acted favorably on five applications and received three for consideration, which were referred to in-

Valley Forge Council, No. 51, Wednesday night conferred the initiatory degree on three candidates; acted favorably on five applications and received three for consideration, which were referred to investigating committees. S. R. Bell and J. O. Reed, who have been sick, were reported as recovered and able to be out again.

Secretary George W. Rue was instructed to arrange for refreshments at the next meeting, when the State Council officers will make their annual visitation.

The committee on uniforms reported that it had arranged to have the new uniforms by April 1.

C. H. Hughes of Beach Grove Council, No. 24, Nelson county, Va., was a visitor and gave a talk on the order throughout the country. State Council Warden Hurly of Constellation Council; E. S. Disney and G. W. Gubert of Benning Council, also took part in the good and welfare, remarks were made by L. M. Green, D. Luther Smith, George W. Rue and Harry E. Chrisman.

Dr. J. Edwin Potter was selected as examining physician for the council.

Thomas Jefferson Council, No. 12, met Tuesday night with a full attendance Another member of the council, J. H. Brassee, was reported sick. Two candidates were received by initiation and the usual routine business was transacted. The council adopted the propagition to change the meeting night

Edward J. Ross Council, No. 26, Wed-weeks' illness and received a hearty raveling for a year, was cobsen and Israel Sommers and Chancellor Commander Motyka of Capital Lodge.

JR.OUAM

Potomac Council, No. 20, at its meeting Tuesday evening at Odd Fellows' Hall, Georgetown, received a visit from State Councilor Charles S. Jones and his staff.

Past Councilor Edgar C. Blackman

Past Councilor Edgar C. Blackman

The officers and members of Maple Grove, No. 5. one of the new additions to the Woodmen circle in Washington, will give a box party and dance in the lodgeroom of Oak Camp, No. 4, Woodmen of the World, at 12th and H streets northeast, Wednesday evening. The following committee will have charge: Mrs. Agnes Hefferman, Mrs. Jennie Simmons, Miss Annie Costello and Mrs. Goldle Nango. At the last meeting of the circle three candidates were initiated.

day evening in Grand Army Hall, 1412 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, with